Contact Information for Vermont's Federal Lawmakers 2011-2012

- When an Activation occurs regarding a federal issue, contact only the officials indicated in the alert. Call or e-mail these federal lawmakers, or write your message at the website given.
- Politely convey your message in a clear, brief manner. Don't try to debate the issue; just express your support for, or opposition to, the issue in question and urge the elected official to vote accordingly.
- Include the number of the bill or the sponsor of the amendment. Give your complete name and address.
- Ask for a written response, requesting to know how the elected official intends to vote on the issue.
- Contact both senators when a vote is coming up in the U.S. Senate.

U.S. Senators:

Sen. Patrick Leahy	1-800-642-3193	senator_leahy@leahy.senate.gov
Sen. Bernie Sanders	1-800-339-9834	www.sanders.senate.gov/comments

U.S. Congressman:

Rep. Peter Welch	1-888-605-7270	www.welch.house.gov
-------------------------	----------------	--

Contact Information for State Legislators 2011-2012

- When an Activation occurs regarding a state issue, you can call state senators and representatives during the legislative session at their homes on Mondays, evenings and weekends; on other weekdays during the session, you can leave a message with the Sergeant-At-Arms office 1-800-322-5616. E-mail messages can be sent at any time.
- When the issue is in the Vermont Senate, be sure to contact all senators for your district. When the issue is in the Vermont House, contact both representatives if there is more than one for your district.
- Ask how he or she intends to vote. Please communicate any responses to Kathy Fisher, see below.
